

Back in March 2013 I decided to drip-feed one shortcut per week. Almost all of them link to one of my more detailed Clever Clogs Tips that I've been cranking out since 2003. See <https://www.roem.co.uk/hints.php>
 There's obviously nothing wrong with using the mouse, but many people find that keyboard shortcuts help them to work faster. And for users with mobility or vision disabilities it can be a very important alternative.
